American Asset Initiatives (AAIN) is a financial consulting firm providing audit oversight for our clients in the third-party claim filing marketplace. Our services are provided on a contingent fee basis. We receive compensation only if successful in recovering funds on behalf of your organization. Surprisingly, we find many class members are often unaware of the money they're entitled to and how to obtain their full entitlement

There is no out of pocket cost or obligation to participate!

If you chose to hire AAIN to assist in your recovery we will investigate, identify, catalog, submit documentation and provide audit oversight in support of your organization's claim. AAIN will consult with the Court appointed Administrator and Class Counsel on your behalf to determine the most effective method to ensure your rights are preserved. Although you have the option to act independently and are not required to hire outside assistance or counsel, we offer our clients the experience and expertise to ensure your claim is fully valued. There is no cost assistance available from the Class Administrator or Class Counsel. Additional information can be obtained from the Court approved website. Claim forms are NOW available

For more information, and options contact our offices and ask to speak to one of our recovery analysts.
